The manuscript contains the first part of the book, from the beginning of the Qur’an until Strat al-Kahf. The copy bears a statement of ownership in the name of Sa’id b. Haydara Mqbil al-Turayn dated to AH 1279/1863, and another in the name of Muhammad b. Ishq b. ‘Aqil dated AH 1285/1868.
لا يوجد نص قابل للاشتقاق من الصورة.
The end of the manuscript is missing, and the remainder has suffered termite damage. The author mentions that 'Ali b. Muhammad b. Wanayyin, secretary of the Imam Faysal b. Turks, requested that he write a book on astronomy, and so he composed this work. The copy was written during the 13th/19th century.
The manuscript was collated with a number of other copies, and contains notes and corrections. It bears statements of ownership in the names of Hasan b. 'Abd Allâh Abu Bisayn and Muhammad b. 'Abd al-Muhsin al-Khayyâl dated AH 1365/1946. The manuscript was copied during the 10th/16th century.