The manuscript contains notes as well as a statement of ownership by the name of Muhammad b. 'Abd al-Muhsin al-Khyyal. The owner recorded the date of the birth of his son 'Abd al-Muhsin on the binding. The copy was made during the 12th/18th century.
The text begins with 'Kitāb al-nikāḥ' and ends with 'Itq awlād alumnahā'; the text was written by more than one copyst.

The manuscript bears statements of ownership in the names of Muhammad b. Muhammad Abi Bakr al-Sadi ... al-Hanbali, Muhammad 'Abī al-Dīn b. Muhammad b. 'Abd al-Qādir al-Hanbali, 'Abī 'Abd al-Qādir b. al-Shaykh 'Abī al-Qādir al-Kindī dated AH 871/1467, Muhammad ... Şah al-Dīn Muhammad al-Qūṭ al-Rabbātānī, Abu 'Abd al-Rahmān b. Rājīh al-Tamīmī al-Hanbali from Sūdây, and Muhammad b. Fawzān b. Sulaymān Ismā’īl b. ‘Urāynāt, on page 110b. And on page 110b there is a statement which mentions that the owner (of the manuscript) Ismā’īl b. Rumayn endowed it for those of his descendants who became students. “At the beginning of the manuscript there is a statement of ownership in the name of Muhammad b. 'Abd al-Mulūsīn al-Khayyāl.”
The manuscript consists of two volumes, and it is mentioned at the commencement of the first volume that the work was "collated with the famous copy, the copy of 'Abd al-Hayy b. Ahmad b. al-Isnād Abū Falāḥ al-Hanbali, which is a correct copy. God willing the manuscript also contains comments and corrections. The first volume consists of 225 folios and the second of 217 folios.

At the beginning of the manuscript there is a statement of endowment which states that "Abd Allah b. Ahmad endowed all the commentary on the Iqna'" for reader(s) from his descendants, and his brother Ibrāhīm and his descendants. The wāqī'ish conditions are to be found at the end of statement of endowment." The present copy includes some rare documents.