Classification no.: al-’Anqar/39
Subject: History
Title: Tārikh Ibn La’bān
Author: Hamad b. Muhammad b. Naṣir, Ibn La’bān
d. after AH 1257/1841
Folio: 28

Comments:
The end of the manuscript is missing. The text deals with the history of Adam and the Arabian tribes in general. It appears to have been copied during the 14th/20th century.
Classification no.: al-'Anqar/43-I
Subject: Sources of Islamic jurisprudence
Title: Kashf al-masā’il min Kūtūb al-qawā’il l’Hbn al-Labhām
Folios: 15

Comments:
Part of a collection and followed by "Kitab al-qawā’il."
The manuscript bears a statement of endowment in the name of Ibrāhīm al-'Atiq recorded by his son 'Abd al-Rahmān.
The author of the book, which organizes the "Qawā’il" of Ibn Labhām, is unknown. The manuscript was copied during the 13th/19th century.
The manuscript is part of a collection and bears a statement of endowment in the name of Ibrahim al-'Atiqa recorded by his grandson 'Abd al-Rahman.
The manuscript contains important annotations recorded by a number of al-Anqari's pupils, including al-Khayyal. Parts of the manuscript were written by a different抄写者.

The manuscript bears a partly effaced statement of ownership, of which "...Ibrahim b. Muhammad," can be read, in addition to a seal which is illegible. It was copied during the 13th/19th century.