The manuscript contains numerous statements of ownership; one of them states that it was owned by `Umar who then sold it to `Abdul `Ali b. Muhammad b. Ahmad b. `Alawi b. `Adham b. Ya`qub. Other statements mention that it was owned at various times by Muhammad Hassan and Hassan b. Hanbîl. `Ali b. Muhammad b. Hanbîl. A note on the manuscript mentions that it passed into the possession of `Abd `Ali b. `Abd al-Malik. The manuscript was copied during the 13th/19th century.
Comments:
The manuscript was copied during the 8th/14th century. It begins with Zihār (a pre-Islamic form of divorce) and continues through to 'Bib bukum al-sāriq.' This is the only part of the book in al-Anqar's library; the text was collated with a copy in the author's own handwriting. It contains annotations by 'Alam al-Dīn Sulaymān b. Ahmad al-'Asqalānī.

The manuscript bears a statement of ownership in the name of Muḥammad al-Hajjāwī, the leader of the Hanbal school.
