Comments:
At the end of the book there are a record of sessions in which the book was read, as well as statements attesting that it has been read by a number of people, including a reading in the presence of Shaykh Ahmad b. ‘Abd Allâh al-Askârî. At the beginning of the manuscript, which was copied during the 8th/14th century, it is recorded that “it was saved through purchase” by Mûsâ al-Hajjâwi.
The manuscript was written out on the order of Muhammad b. Faysal whose statement of ownership appears on it dated AH 1287/1870.
