The manuscript contains comments by the copyist, in addition to a statement recording that it was read in the presence of the copyist's shaykh, Muhammad b. 'Umar b. Sallim. At the beginning of the manuscript, there is an annotation that Fawzîn b. Sâbiq b. Fawzîn paid for it to be produced in AH 1296/1879, and his seal appears on it, although it has been effaced.

The manuscript also bears a statement of endowment by Muhammad b. 'Abd Allâh b. Rashîd; supervision of the endowment was delegated to Ya'qûb b. Muhammad b. Sa'd. Witnesses to the endowment were Nâsir b. Muhammad b. 'Arûtq, Sahîbûn b. Sallâma and Nâsir al-Sâhibûn. The endowment statement was written by Ya'qûb b. Muhammad in AH 1302/1885.
Comments:
There are a few lacunae at the beginning of this manuscript. Some of the folios have been pieced together; whereas the original was written on paper of Eastern provenance, the additions have been carried out using modern paper, as, for instance, in the case of the final folio where the date the manuscript was copied has been written at the top of the final page.

The manuscript bears a statement of ownership in the name of Rashid b. 'Abd Allah, and another in the name of 'Abd Allah b. Al Mājid dated AH 1307/1890. Afterwards, and in the same year AH 1307/1890, the manuscript was purchased by Ya'qūb b. Muhammad, as witnessed by Rashid b. Rashid, Sa'id b. Mubarak, and Hamdūl Al Malq.
The manuscript contains a seal bearing the name of Muhammad b. 'Ali b. Mūsā dated AH 1293/1876. In addition, there is a statement of ownership in the name of Sālim b. Hāmid b. 'Ubayd al-Rasīd dated AH 1307/1890, as well as another statement of ownership of which only the name al-'Uqāb (?) can be made out.
