لا يوجد نص يمكن قراءته بشكل طبيعي من الصورة المقدمة.
Mas'ūdī, despite his purported intention to discuss 15 questions, only discusses 14 questions, and in connection with the 15th one, he refers the readers to Al-Tahāfut of Ghazālī after quoting the phrase from Ishārāt.

The original manuscript of Al-Mabāʾith wa al-Shukūk, the facsimile of which is published, is kept at the library of Imam ‘Aṣr Religious School in Shiraz. The manuscript had been in possession of Mullā Ṣadrā Shirāzī (d. 1050/1640) and after Mullā Ṣadrā’s death, the manuscript came into possession of his son Ibrāhīm b. Muḥammad Shirāzī (d. 1070/1659). There are indications, such as the technical table of contents inserted in the beginning of Al-Mabāʾith wa al-Shukūk, that the scribe had been a scholarly man.