Among the rare and unique MSS are a Qur’ân with calligraphic decoration written in 1141 AH [1728–29], a biographical dictionary of famous ‘ulema’ written in 1055 AH [1645], an encyclopaedia, and a version of the chronicle of the campaigns of Imâm Ahmad b. Imâm (fl. 1506–43). The documents were either donated, acquired or purchased by the Institute, or deposited by researchers. These MSS have not been systematically catalogued.

Published catalogues:
1967. Note sur quelques manuscrits arabes se trouvant en Ethiopie.
Survey of the collection, with details of a number of the more important MSS.

Unpublished catalogues:
Inventory of most of the manuscripts.
Card list.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL APPENDIX

‘Awwâd, Kürtis. Fuhâris al-makhûtât al-‘Arabiya fi 'l-‘Islâm. Kuwait:
Al-‘Abasha (Athisawbiya), vol. 1, p. 370, no. 1373.

Pearson, J.D. Index Islamicus: Third Supplement 1966–1970. A catalogue of articles on Islamic subjects in periodicals and other collective publica-
I.d. Catalogues, descriptions of manuscripts. i. Manuscripts:

Sezgin, Fuat. Geschichte des arabischen Schrifttums. Band VI. Leiden:
Bibliotheken und Sammlungen arabischer Handschriften:
Äthiopien, p. 329.
UNION CATALOGUES & SURVEYS

(see Vol. I, pp. 251–292)

INDIVIDUAL COLLECTIONS

PARIS

Bibliothèque Nationale

(see Vol. I, pp. 275–290)

Published catalogues:
