Conditions of business

Sotheby’s carries on business (whether with actual or prospective buyers and sellers or consignors requiring inspection, appraisal or valuation of property or property being sold at auction, or otherwise) on the following terms and conditions and on such other terms, conditions, notices and notices as may be set out in any relevant catalogue. The definitions of words and phrases with special meanings appear in Condition 39.

Conditions mainly concerning buyers

1. The buyer

The highest bidder shall be the buyer at the ‘hammer price’ and any premium shall be settled at the auctioneer’s absolute discretion. Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in fact written acknowledgement by Sotheby’s that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal.

2. Minimum increment

The auctioneer shall have the right to refuse any bid which does not exceed the previous bid by at least 5 per cent or by such proportion as the auctioneer shall in his absolute discretion direct.

3. The premium

The buyer shall pay to Sotheby’s a premium of 10% on the ‘hammer price’ together with Value Added Tax at the standard rate on the premium and agrees that Sotheby’s, when acting as agent for the seller, may also receive commission from the seller in accordance with Condition 19.

4. Value Added Tax (VAT)

Lots on which Value Added Tax is payable by the buyer on the hammer price will be invoiced to the buyer at a rate of Value Added Tax, the rates of which are subject to alteration by law, it payable at the rates prevailing on the day of the auction.

5. Currency converter

A currency converter will be operated at some auctions but only for the guidance of bidders. Sotheby’s will not accept any responsibility in the event of any currency converter being incorrect or foreign currency equivalent of bids in pounds sterling or otherwise.

6. Payment

Immediately a lot is sold the buyer shall:
(a) give to Sotheby’s his name and address and, if requested, proof of identity; and
(b) pay to Sotheby’s the ‘total amount due’ (unless credit terms have been agreed with Sotheby’s before the auction).

7. Sotheby’s may, at its absolute discretion, agree credit terms with the buyer before an auction under which the buyer will be entitled to take possession of lots purchased up to an agreed amount in order in advance of payment by a determined future date of the ‘total amount due’.

8. Any payments by a buyer to Sotheby’s may be applied by Sotheby’s towards any sums owing from the buyer to Sotheby’s on any account whatever without regard to the directions of the buyer, his agent, whether express or implied.

9. Collection of purchases

The ownership of the lots purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has made payment in full to Sotheby’s of the ‘total amount due’.

10. The buyer shall at his own expense take away the lots purchased later than 5 working days after the day of the auction but (unless credit terms have been agreed in accordance with Condition 7) not before payment to Sotheby’s of the ‘total amount due’.

11. The buyer shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges on any lot not taken away within 5 working days after the day of the auction.

12. The buyer shall be responsible for any damage to glass or frames, regardless of cause. (While Sotheby’s may recommend packers and shippers, Sotheby’s are not responsible for their errors and omissions)

13. For wins, prizes and ciphers not available for collection from Sotheby’s premises, the supply of a release order authorising the release of the lot to the buyer will constitute delivery by Sotheby’s.

14. Buyers responsibilities for Lots purchased

The buyer will be responsible for losses or damage to lots purchased from the time of collection or the expiry of 5 working days after the day of the auction, whichever is the sooner, and neither Sotheby’s nor its servants or agents shall thereafter be responsible for any loss or damage of any kind, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, while any lot is in its custody or under its control.

15. The buyer of a motor vehicle is responsible for complying with the provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1937 and all relevant regulations made under section 40 thereof (including the Motor Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1973) and any statutory modification thereof.

16. The buyer of a firearm is responsible for obtaining a valid firearm certificate, gun certificate or certificate of registration as a firearms dealer and for complying with the regulations in force in Great Britain relating to firearms, notice of which is published in the catalogues of firearms. Sotheby’s will not deliver lots to buyers without production of evidence of compliance with this condition.

17. Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchases

If any lot is not paid for as full and takes away in accordance with Conditions 6 and 10, or if there is any breach of either of these Conditions, Sotheby’s as agent of the seller shall, at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:
(a) to proceed against the buyer for damages for breach of contract;
(b) to receive the sale of that or any other lots sold to the defaulting buyer at the same or any other auction;
(c) to require the lot or cause it to be sold by public auction or private sale and the defaulting buyer shall pay to Sotheby’s any resulting deficiency in the ‘total amount due’ (after deduction of any part payment and addition of resale costs) and any surplus shall belong to the seller;
(d) to remove, store and insure at the expense of the defaulting buyer and, in the case of storage, either at Sotheby’s premises or elsewhere;
(e) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 2% per month on the ‘total amount due’ at the rate then prevailing and remains unpaid for more than 5 working days after the day of the auction;
(f) to retain or resell any other lot sold to the same buyer at the same or any other auction and release it only after payment of the ‘total amount due’;
(g) to reject or ignore any bids made by or on behalf of the defaulting buyer at any future auctions or obtain a deposit before accepting any bids in future;
(h) to apply any proceeds of sale then due or at any time thereafter becoming due to the defaulting buyer towards settlement of the ‘total amount due’ and to exercise a lien on any property of the defaulting buyer which is in Sotheby’s possession for any purpose.

18. Liability of Sotheby’s and Sellers

Goods auctioned are usually of some age. All goods are sold with all faults and any description or errors or omissions. Catalogues are for identification only. Buyers should satisfy themselves prior to sale as to the condition of each lot and should exercise and rely on their own judgement as to whether the lot accords with its description. Subject to the obligations accepted by Sotheby’s under this Condition, none of the Seller, Sotheby’s, its servants or agents is responsible for errors of description or for the genuineness or authenticity of any lot. The seller warrants whatever is quoted by Sotheby’s, its servants, or agents, or any seller to any buyer in respect of any lot and any implied or expressed conditions or warranties are hereby excluded.
